Meir sinks have a 15-year warranty against manufacturing defects under normal residential conditions

Meir will offer to replace or repair defective sinks where the warranty conditions have been met

Note: Accessories, wastes, overflows and parts are covered for 12 months

The warranty shall be void for the following reasons:

- Improper installations according to the supplied installation guide, or failure to comply with the local plumbing codes
 - Normal wear and tear
- Improper installation or failure to comply with local plumbing codes
 - Damages caused by accidents such as dropping objects
 - Misuse, abuse, neglect or mishandling
 - Lack of reasonable and proper maintenance
- Scratches, chips, stains, warping or routing imperfections that appear after installation
 - Damage resulting from the use of harsh cleaning materials or abrasive items
- Any repair or alterations made to the product without prior written consent from Meir

The sink must be thoroughly inspected before installation. By installing the sink, the owner accepts that the product is free damages.

Note: Commercial and Industrial installations are covered for 12 months
